

Contact:
Clint M. Chance
Chairman, West Georgia Regional Library System Board
(770) 634-9650

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HEADLINE: WEST GEORGIA REGIONAL LIBRARY SYSTEM ANNOUNCES CANDIDATES FOR DIRECTOR

CARROLLTON, GA - The West Georgia Regional Library System (WGRLS) Board of Trustees has chosen Jessica L. Everingham and Laurie Eubanks as candidates for Director of WGRLS. Ms. Everingham is Assistant State Librarian for Georgia Public Library Service, and Ms. Eubanks is Deputy Director of Troops-Harris Regional Library.

Both candidates will be interviewed on November 1 with an offer made to the selected candidate by mid-November. The position has been open since Roni Tewksbury retired as Director in August.

About West Georgia Regional Library System

West Georgia Regional Library System comprises the 18 member libraries operating in Carroll, Douglas, Haralson, Heard, and Paulding counties. The libraries serve the nearly 450,000 residents in West Georgia providing equitable access to books, movies, and audio & a myriad of services such as community events and free computer access.